Dedication

Mrs. Bineau is known for her smile as well as her famous laugh that can be heard in her classroom and for miles beyond.

Mrs. Bineau's1997 Halloween costume reflects her creativity and sense of humor, both of which are appreciated by her students.

Six months old and ready to take on the world!

As a child Mrs. Bineau enjoyed reading and playing with her cousins who lived nearby.

High school graduation from Chicopee High School in 1986 was one of Mrs. Bineau's first steps into adulthood.

Robin Kenney-Bineau

It is the Memini staff's pleasure to present Mrs. Robin Kenney-Bineau as the Memini 2013 co-dedicatee for her years as an educator, particularly the time she has spent inspiring the students of Chicopee Comprehensive High School.

Mrs. Bineau grew up in Chicopee as an only child and did not have friends who were her own age until the fourth grade. Mrs. Bineau was a 70s child and an 80s teen. Her father was a police officer who worked from 4 PM-12 AM, while her mother worked night shifts. Due to her parents' work schedules, her uncle often took her and her cousins to plays, museums, and helped expose her to different cultures and activities that have continued into her adulthood. Mrs. Bineau was a well-liked high school student who managed the boys' soccer team. Her favorite subjects were English and Social Studies.

After graduating from Chicopee High School in 1986, she decided to become a history teacher. She also contemplated becoming an English teacher because she loved the subject so much. During college, Mrs. Bineau was a full time student and a full time manager at a record store, simultaneously maintaining passing grades and making regular car payments. This was a challenging time in her life; however, the experience helped her to become tenacious, and now she inspires her students to be the same way. After earning her degree, Mrs. Bineau began student teaching at Holyoke High School. Later on, she moved on to Horizon Academy and taught there from 1997-2003. In 2003, Chicopee Comp was lucky enough to be graced with the presence of Mrs. Bineau and she has been here ever since.

Mrs. Bineau's love walked into her life in 1993 and they have been inseparable ever since. Ms. Kenney became Mrs. Bineau in 1998. After their marriage, Michael and Robin purchased their first home in Holyoke and still live there today. Mrs. Bineau says, "You need to marry your best friend and have a similar humor among yourselves." In her spare time, Mrs. Bineau enjoys knitting, reading, watching movies, spending time with family and friends, playing racquetball, swimming, and walking (occasionally running) at the Res.

Nearly the whole student body is familiar with Mrs. Bineau due to her willingness to help students and staff in need, her entertaining Psychology and Sociology classes, and her famous laughter when someone cracks a joke. For this and various other reasons, the yearbook staff is honored to dedicate Memini 2013 to Mrs. Bineau.

Celebrating as a newly graduated teacher with dreams of teaching Social Studies at Chicopee Comp.

Robin Kenney became Mrs. Kenney-Bineau in 1998 when she married Michael Bineau.

Mrs. Bineau's best friend Buckley plays in the autumn leaves.

Dedication

Mr. Morrison prepares to dance the night away at his Senior Prom.

In his school picture, Mr. Morrison looks like an ordinary high school student. Who knew?

Derek Morrison

It is the Memini staff's pleasure to present Mr. Derek Morrison as the Memini 2013 co-dedicatee for his years as an educator; in particular, for taking the Chicopee Comprehensive High School Class of 2013 from freshman to senior year.

Mr. Morrison grew up in upstate New York. Along with family and friends, he spent a lot of time outdoors boating, hunting, fishing, and playing sports. During high school and college Mr. Morrison played baseball and football. In addition, he was the class secretary for the 1989 graduating class of Coxsacki Athens High School.

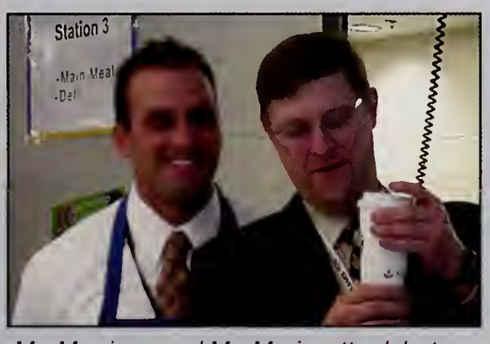
In college Mr. Morrison had a desire to learn and he earned many degrees: an Associate's Degree from Columbia Green, a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from Plattsburg, and a double Master's degree from Westfield State University. Mr. Morrison's desire to learn still lives within him today; one of his goals is to go back to school to obtain a Doctorate degree from UMASS.

College not only brought Mr. Morrison a career and many degrees, it also enabled him to meet his wife, Leslie. Currently they live in Wilbraham with their three children Aiden, Taylor and Mallory. When Mr. Morrison has a chance to step away from his office he enjoys hiking, reading, boating, exercising and cooking. He loves chowing down on pizza and ice cream, and he's a big fan of both The Hobbit and The Lord of the Rings. While spending time with his family is a priority, he can also "break it down" with his peers as a hip hop dancer and is known for cracking a few jokes here and there.

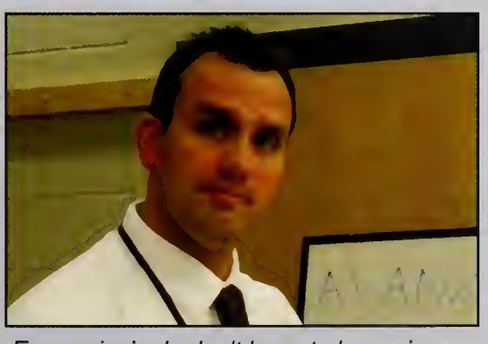
In the future Mr. Morrison would like to participate in a Tough Mudder race and learn how to scuba dive. During the holiday season Mr. Morrison is known to be a Christmas fanatic and every year he feels that he needs to outdo his neighbors with Christmas decorations and lights. His spirited attitude is recognized throughout the student body and faculty as he takes part in Drama Club productions such as Little Shop of Horrors, Grease and Beauty and the Beast.

During his years at Chicopee Comprehensive, Mr. Morrison has truly made an impact on the students and faculty by inspiring them to always do their best. Mr. Morrison's famous quote, "Don't blink; it'll be over before you think" is true, as the Class of 2013 blinked through their way through high school and it is now over. Mr. Morrison's wise advice, caring nature, and positive attitude are only a few reasons why the yearbook staff has chosen to honor him with this dedication.

Mr. Couture, Mr. Morrison, and Mr. Paquette show off their breathtaking holiday sweaters.



Mr. Morrison and Mr. Morissette debate the merits of Starbucks vs. Dunkin Donuts.



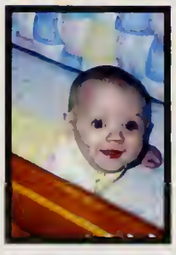
Even principals don't have to be serious all the time!

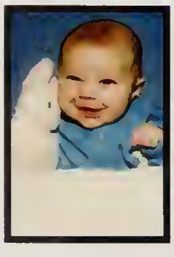
Seniors

growing one day at a time

Before we learned to cram the night before a test and wade through large amounts of homework, we were children just beginning to walk and learn the life skills we still use today. We watched shows like Rugrats and Barney, played with Barbie Dolls and Hot Wheels, and jammed to Britney Spears and N*SYNC. A lot of things may have changed over the years of growing up, but our childhood memories will never fade.

Who is Who?! Go to pg.147 for answers!





Where it all began...

Freshman Year 2009-2010

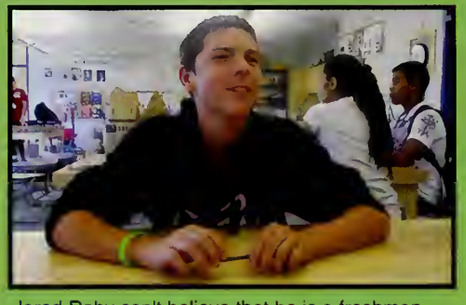
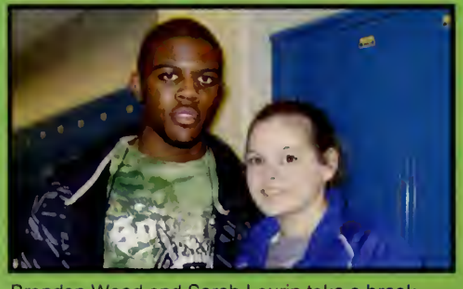
Clones? Nope, it's Rachel Wright, Jocelyn Pickard and Kelsey Weibel.

Freshmen work hard in their first year so that they will be able to graduate in 2013.

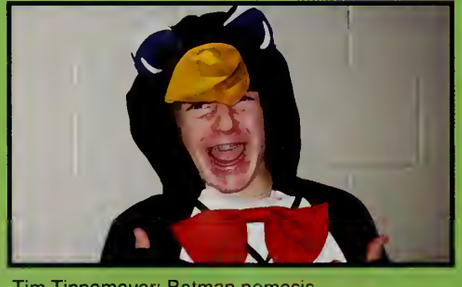


Jared Raby can't believe that he is a freshman in high school.

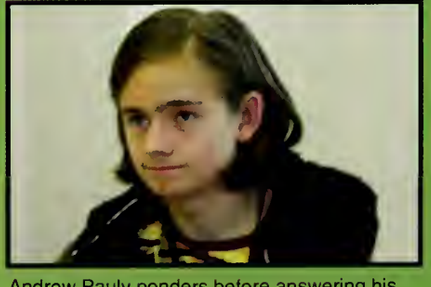
Chicopee Comprehensive Freshman Football Team, 2009-2010.



Brandon Wood and Sarah Laurin take a break between classes.



Tim Tinnemeyer: Batman nemesis.



Andrew Pauly ponders before answering his teacher's question.

Nick Adams looks like he is up to mischief. Look out!

Freshman Year was where our journey through Chicopee Comp began. For some of us it was very nerve-racking walking into new territory. It felt like it took forever to get the hang of high school but in no time it felt like normal. We met so many new people and made lifelong friends.Now that our time at CCHS is coming to an end, we have learned to cherish those moments.

Careful, Andy! Your freshman is showing!

"We will survive!" Nomari Lopez and Laila Shaikh model proper bandana couture.

Mrs. Bruso's physics class prepares for their first spirit rally.

Courtney Chouinard and Aisha Santos goof around in the hallway.

Below: Danielle Drewniak, Drew Brzoska, and Crystal Bielanski: It's not easy being green.

Sophomore Year was full of exciting twists and turns. We were no longer freshmen and it felt great! Finally, we had a feel for the school and did not get lost going from class to class anymore. Although we did not come out with a victory during spirit week we did have a lot of fun! Sophomore Year we made a ton of new memories that we will never forget. Our class of 2013 finally started to come together!

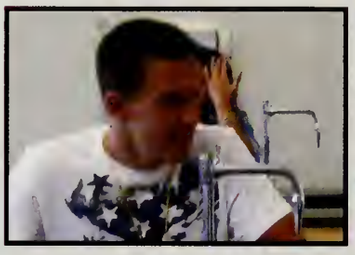
Right: Laura Gibb and Jacob Hilton buddy up in the library.

Below: Kyle Orzolek finds something hilarious in biology with Mr. Wartel.



Right: Jaimin Patel is ready to learn everything there is to know about computers.

Below: Steven Maxam and Michelle Rondeau work on a research assignment in the library.

Andre Remillard, Max Gerhardson, Tim Tinnemeyer and Hannah Conroy goof off during class.

Brianna Bray and Jane Stebbins stop in the hallway to look for the Kool-Aid Man.

Sophomore Year

2010-2011

Kiara Theriault, Alexandra Russo and Kelsey Goyer rush to beat the bell.

Brittany Houghton and Patrick Mitchell play Gretl and Friedrich Von Trapp in the Drama Club's production of The Sound Of Music.

Anna Komorowski does some hardcore studying in the library's comfy chairs.

Jacob Jones and Daniella Connors play checkers during Game Club.

Kiara Rush, Ashley Bushey and Jordan Tenney: "Snap the picture already!"

Kevin Hines relaxes with his friend Stephanie McCray.

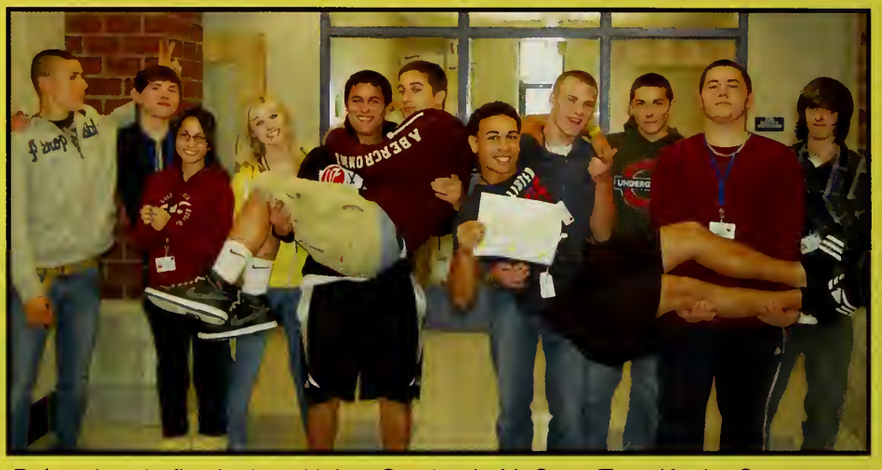
Samantha Desrochers and Leo Gomez whip themselves into the Halloween spirit.

Almost at the end...

Junior Year

2011-2012

Keith Kleszcynski, Jared Oyola, Maurice Velez and Jeff Sullivano wait for class to start.



Robert Landerfin, Andrew Heise, Stephanie McCray, Tess Kania, Cory Hupfer, Shane Brooks, Jason Vega, John Wilke, Jared Raby, Anthony Machnacz and Cameron Roy represent the big '13.

Angel Rodriguez shows off his guns concealed in his North Face.

Drew Brzoska, Armond Estrada, Matt Wyckoff and Tyler Schofield love to goof off during lunchtime!

Lauren Loiselle gives a thumbs up to Junior Year.

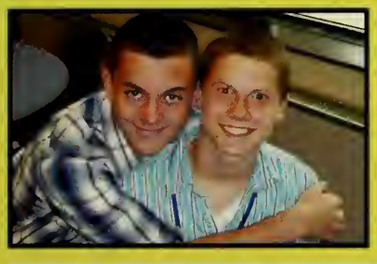
Chris McNulty and Britnee Black enjoy the calm in art class.

Jeremiah Hill wonders if tomorrow is chicken pattie day.

Gilberto Colon flashes his pearly whites.

Junior year was full of memories; it was a year of new adventures. We had our first powderpuff cheer at homecoming, where the boys did not disappoint. Most importantly, it was the last chance we had to impress colleges with our grades before our Senior year. Junior year consisted of working hard and having good times that we will remember for a lifetime.

Tyler Magoon considers himself to be relatively lactose-tolerant.



George Fotopolous snuggles up to Alex Niemiec at the lunch table.

Moussa Hamadeh questions why the yearbook staff wants to know what he's eating for lunch.

Ray Pelter strikes the pose "Boom, Boom, Firepower!"

Brayden Quinn and Orlando Rodriguez are suprised to find a camera in their faces.

Below: Chloe Gerhardson and Kristiana Tadeo bask in the glory that is Publications Class.

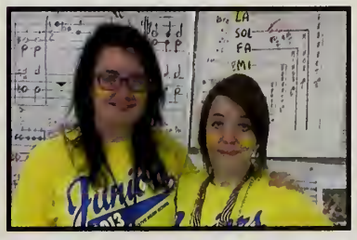
Below: Cassie Faudree and Hannah Miller: Music is life.



Finally what we had all waited for arrived: Senior year! We finished up the classes that we needed to graduate and applied to many colleges. Memories upon memories were made that cannot possibly be forgotten! We may feel that this is the end of everything that we have ever known but that is not true. This is just the new beginning of the rest of our lives that we have ahead of us!

Below: Morgan Rodrigue and Courtney Cox had a great time at the Big E.

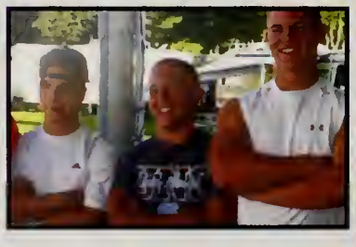
Right: Joshua Carmelengo and Amanda Young go together like bacon and eggs.

Below: Joe Gauthier, Kyle Pare and Kyle Soja : "None shall pass!"



Robert Landerkin and Robert Rich share a snack after donating blood at the NHS annual blood drive

Lizzy Craig, Alyssa Balboni and Kelsey Tauer show off their school spirit at the Sword Game

Andrew Laverdiere, Haley Vallarro, Jacob Hilton and Angel Rodrigue goof around in Studio Production

Let's all give Victoria Brown a big hand for her excellent costume!

Tara Kane and Josh Lopes have to go anywhere without a smile

We have arrived...

Senior Year

2012-2013

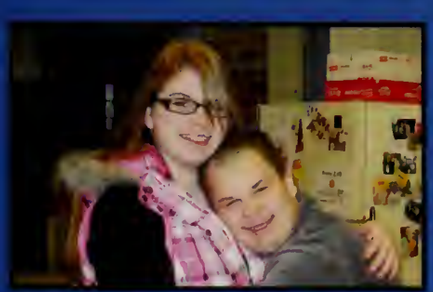
Kelsie Dwight, Frances Belen, Kelsey Weibel and Ashley Medina enjoy the first day of Senior year.

Brittany Houghton and Laila Shaikh dissect a sheep's brain in Anatomy & Physiology.

Kabrial Labonte and Shawn Miller would much rather goof off in class than read.

Jared Bauman, Nate Moreau and Danielle Drewniak fight off the crowds clamoring for a glimpse of the 2013 yearbook cover.

Leo Gomez and Jocelyn Pickard doing what Library Aides do best.



Rebecca Thrasher gets her daily hug from Sebastian Szeszko

Norman Lopez, Weronika Jakubowska and Anna Siroklin celebrate the day

Just a normal day for Tim O'Grady and Jeff Sullivano.

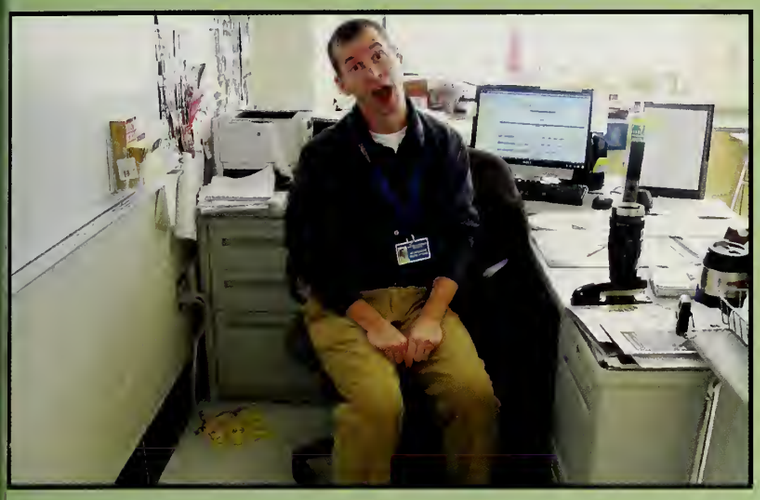
Class Advisors

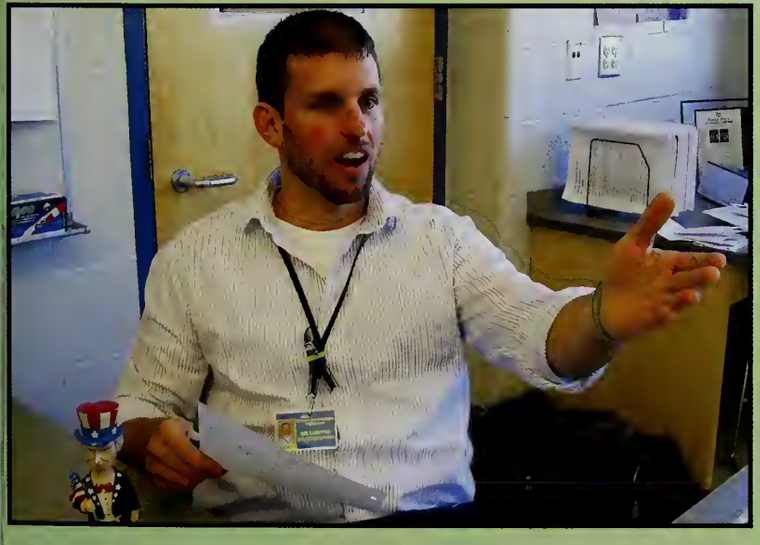


Mr. Paquette

A 1998 graduate of Comp, Mr.Paquette holds many college degress but his most recent is his Masters in Education from Elms College. Mr.Paquette has been teaching history at CCHS for seven years. He has also been an assistant coach for the Comp Football team since 2005. Mr.Paquette has also always been known for his sense of humor.

Something we'll always remember...

As our four years approached their ending, we look back in appreciation of what our class advisors have done for us, from fundraisers to countless dues reminders. Our advisors have never given up on us. As we graduate and venture into the real world we will never forget our high school years at Chicopee Comprehensive. We have all come a long way,and we're proud to say we have completed our journey to graduate high school.



Mr. Lamothe

Mr.Lamothe has also accomplished a lot during his short time here; he is currently the chairman of the Social Studies department. Lamothe also graduated from Comp in 2002. He attended Westfield State for his undergraduate degree in history and education. Recently he received his masters in leadership/ administration from Framingham State College. Mr. Lamothe has been the Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field coach for seven years. He will also be remembered for the Uncle Sam statuette on his desk.

Student Life

Have you ever wondered what your classmates do after school? Do they just drop off the face of the earth when the bell rings? No, contrary to belief, we actually have lives; pretty interesting ones, in fact! Let's take a look into the world of school OUTSIDE of school . . .

Trevor Trask poses with his favorite angel Lauren Ouimette.

Ms. Roberts puckers up as Honey Boo Boo from TLC.

Nate Morisette and Mr. Wozniak: "Ring, ring, ring, ring, BANANA PHONE!"

Left: Time for aerobics with Anna Komorowski as Workout Barbie!

Brandy Gallagher has amazingly located Waldo! Or is it Sara Salloum?

Lena, Austin and Tim show their Halloween spirit!

Would you like to play a game with Cameron Dupuis?

Left: Brooke Gardiner and Joseph Trombley await the spirit point tallies.

Nick Moisan and Travis Seymour ham it up.

Sam Desroches and Michelle Rondeau prepare us all for fright night.

Brittany Roy and Jordan Chmura won't throw any temper tantrums today!

Mr. Bouyea returned from the 1930s and brought King Kong along with him!

Right: Weronika Jakubowska and Hannah Miller have risen from the dead!

Kaitlyn Herzig, Olivia Korell and David Lepine enjoy lunch in character.

Bryan Michon and Kristofer Murphy ARE The Blues Brothers.

Body Art

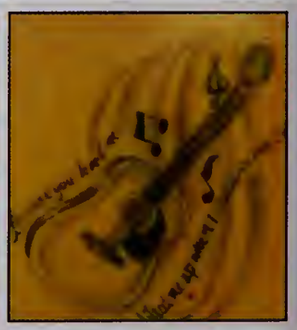
Body art is a way for people to express themselves and their feelings. Kevin Hines has "Family" tattooed across his chest. Kiara Theriault 's states, "No matter where life takes me, find me with a smile. Jessica Laplante has a tattoo with dog tags representing a loved one. Halle Watt's rose tattoo reads, "Live, Laugh, Love."

Robert Robles has a tattoo of tribal art on his arm.

Jessica Barrett has two butterflies. She intends to continue adding more butterflies.

Natalie Cruz has the word "love" in the shape of an infinity sign.

Trevon Bethea's arm tattoo reads, "Love Thy Neighbor."



Alexandria Russos has Celine Dion lyrics and a guitar.

Nautical themes. . .

. . . monograms. . .

. . . popular quotations. . .

Jobs and Goals

Takin' Care of Business

As high school comes to a close, it is time for students to become an adult and decide what they want to do after they have their diploma in hand. Students are grateful for the jobs they have in high school in order to pay for their cars, cell phones, and senior dues, of course! Some students work seasonally around Christmas or during the summer, while others work year round to make bank. They work with their family, friends, or even for themselves and have their own business. For some of them, it can be overwhelming to balance academics, sports, family, friends, and their own social lives, but, in the end, it is all worth it when they find themselves doing something that they truly enjoy.

Jane Stebbins aspires to become an elementary school teacher and is presently being mentored by Gat Zounas.

Nick Adams, Ray Pelter, and Kiara Rush are the current interns at Comp's very own branch of the Polish National Credit Union.

Olivia Korell looks forward to becoming an elementary school guidance counselor

Chonny Vision

Austin Piedra works as a freelance photographer / filmmaker for his own business, "Chonny Vision," the name inspired by Ms. Freisberg's theater arts class. He hopes to one day make it in Hollywood!

Nate Moreau loves to drop mad beats as a DJ at Interskate 91.

National Honors Society

National Honors Society members are selected based on their excellence in four categories: scholarship, leadership, and service. Members are expected to uphold these four ideals throughout the time that they participate in the society. Because of this great reponsibility, one will find National Honors Society members to be highly and consistently active in both their school and local communities. Whether it be partaking in tutoring, helping to orchestrate Chicopee Comprehensive High school's biannual blood drive, or simply volunteering their time at the multitude of orginizations in the local community, members of the National Honors Society at Chicopee Comprehensive High School embody the most laudable qualities of humanity.

What's It Like In Room 323?

Yearbook is not just about memories, it is about putting the memories onto paper in a hard-bound tome to share all of the adventures that took place at Comp over the course of the year. In the beginning, everyone was shy and hesitant to get involved in such a big task. As time went on, we were given strict deadlines that needed to be met in order to get the yearbook to the publisher on time. Through we struggled, the yearbook staff persevered in our quest for greatness. Over the course of the year, we become a crazy, semi-dysfunctional family. Even more, yearbook class is like Las Vegas: what happens in room 323 stays in room 323 and is not revealed until the books are unveiled at the senior banquet. This year's fiftieth edition of Memini is Chicopee Comprehensive's first full color yearbook; the memories we have preserved from this 2012-2013 school year come to life with the help of vibrant color from the images on the pages and the people within the images. We hope you enjoy it.

By Eric Kupchunos

Well seniors, this is it: the final project and a big part of our senior year. We were all nervous in the beginning of the year that this was going to be too challenging. We had trouble thinking of ideas for the big project. Our class ended up with a smorgasbord of diverse topics. Funds are being raised and kids are completing their products because they have discovered that this is the last easiest leg of the senior year.

This year the requirements included a six to eight page paper and an oral presentation accompanied by a PowerPoint. Students also had to create a physical product pertaining to the topic chosen. Seniors were given all year to start and finish their project. But come on, who starts their project the day they receive the assignment? But don't worry, we pulled through.

The seniors I interviewed agreed that the senior project was pretty easy to get through. Nathan Moreau stated that he loved the project and that it was cool to learn more about a subject that interested him. His project was about emergency preparations; for his product he assembled an emergency kit to show people how to stay prepared. At the same time, though, he stated he wouldn't want to go through it again because it has its stressful points.

Angel Rodriguez Guadalupe chose to do his project on "Obesity: the Hidden Unknown Disease." His goal was to motivate people into losing weight to get healthy. He wanted to strike positivity in people's spirits. He quoted Donald Trump's words, "This world needs to be healthier in order to be wealthier." For his product he created a inspirational video, which touched many hearts in the class. In an interview with Angel, he said that he finished completely in three weeks and that it was very complicated to actually finish. In the end, he wasn't nervous at all he was actually happy. Finishing with good spirits and feeling well, he was glad to be done with his year.

The Class of 2013 had a blast, even though the year flew by way too quickly. We will remember our final year for everything we have accomplished. This is the class to never forget.

Kozikowski Auditorium Dedicated

The CCHS Auditorium was renamed to honor former principal Stanley Kozikowski in a short ceremony at the beginning of the Spring Music concert on May 23.

Mr. Kozikowski, principal of CCHS from 2000-2009, was instrumental to the planning and construction of the new building, as well as a strong advocate for providing Chicopee Comprehensive students with a state-of-the-art auditorium.

During his tenure, Mr. Kozikowski was an active supporter of fine arts at Comp. Through his efforts, the Drama Club was able to begin producing full-length musicals; he even accepted a speaking part in the first show, Bye Bye Birdie. In addition, Mr. Kozikowski was a regular participant in staff choral presentations directed by Ms. Borowiec.

Mr. Kozikowski's dedication to the arts and to the staff and students of Chicopee Comprehensive High School will be recognized for many years to come by those who visit Kozikowski Auditorium.

Relay for Life Returns to CCHS

by Desiree Hebert

Relay for Life is a fundraiser for cancer research that takes place here at Chicopee Comprehensive High School every year. The overnight event ran from May 10-11. Participants walked around the track all night. There were also games and food provided. It gives the participants a chance to have fun and raise money for a cause that has a huge impact on their lives.

I interviewed many of the participating students, and they all agreed that it was a very fun and worthwhile event. One of my close friends was disappointed that she could not attend this year's relay due to a scheduling conflict. She told me the story of one of her family members affected by cancer, and how she and her whole family would walk in the event every year. Even though she may not have been able to make it this year, the Relay for Life has impacted her life as well as the lives of her other family members.

This fundraiser has caught the attention of many students in the school, and it is sure to continue its success in the future. It is a great way to help others and have fun at the same time. This event is very well thought out and a lot of work is put in. when a lot of work is put in, you get a lot out.

Comp Students Rock SkillsUSA

by Joshua Carmelengo

At the SkillsUSA competition April 25-27 in Marlboro, Chicopee Comp students made a mark, returning home with a medal and great memories. Students compete to show who is the best of the best in their field of study. There were students all around Massachusetts trying to win a first place trophy. The first place winners earn a spot to go to Kansas City,MO to compete nationally. Winners at the national event then get to compete worldwide.

There were 2500 competitors from all over Massachusetts who wanted the same thing: to win. Eighteen students from Chicopee Comprehensive competed, and four earned a medal. Comp's Steven Maxam won a silver medal for Architectural Drafting. The team in Entrepreneurship that included Kourtney Roy, Megan Faivre and Anna Siroklin won a bronze medal.

The students going directly to states include Marcin Rozanski from Electricity, Alexis Torres from Automotive and Jaimin Patel from CISCO. Others include Thomas Gagnon from Electricity, Jocelyn Mendez from Drafting, Zackary Auman from CISCO, and our three person Entrepreneurship team.

The awards for winning include tools, scholarships and medals. This event is held annually and has been from 1965. Every student who participates in the competition has learned that it takes a lot of effort to win a medal. They have also learned that you have to give it your all if you are going to be the best.

CCHS Dominates Kielbasa Fest

by Normari Lopez

CCHS Culinary Arts defeated Northampton's Smith Vocational at a Kielbasa Festival held on Friday, May 3 in Compaccino's. School committee member Michael Pise originally brought up the idea to have the programs compete and try to make the best kielbasa. Mr.Widelo then proposed the idea to Culinary instructor Mr.Boucher, and the planning for the event sprouted from there.

The festival was run by the thirteen seniors enrolled in the culinary program here at Chicopee Comp. Mr.Bernat, the owner of Bernat's Polish Meat Products located in Chicopee, visited with both Smith's and Comp's culinary programs. He gave the students pointers on how to make kielbasa as well as many other traditional Polish delicacies such as pierogi.

The festival was attended by dignitaries such as Mr. Widelo, Mr. Morrison, Northampton mayor David Narkiewicz, Chicopee Superintendent Richard Rege and several members of the Chicopee Polish Cultural Center.

Yearbook photographer Brandon Underwood had nothing but good things to say about the food. Mr. Boucher noted, "Everything went well; everyone worked diligently to produce the best kielbasa." He was not surprised at the outcome: "We expected to win, because Chicopee has a reputation for fine Polish cooking."

Snow-Redington to Retire

by Daniel Blais

After working at Chicopee Comp for ten and a half years, Mrs. Carolyn Snow-Redington has decided to retire. Her husband is also retiring; this made the idea seem even better.

Mrs. Snow-Redington has worked in Chicopee for a total of twelve and a half years. Her first two years were at Edward Bellamy Middle School, then she transferred to Comp. On the whole, she prefers teaching at the high school level.

Ms. Snow-Redington has two favorite quotes. The first is from Norman Vincent Peale: "You can if you think you can." She also likes to say, "Life is not a dress rehearsal, so get your crap in order." This is a modified version of Rose Tremain's words.

Mrs. Snow-Redington and her husband plan to move to Florida after retiring and enjoy everything that life has to offer: grandchildren, beautiful weather, and one another's company.

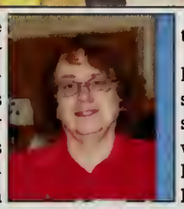
Mrs. Snow-Redington loved working at Comp and she loved teaching health. She hopes that her students appreciated her honesty and that they enjoyed the enthusiasm she brought with her to work each day. She also hopes that they respected her interest in their well-being and the well-being of those around them. I think that we can all agree that Mrs. Snow-Redington will be missed at CCHS.

Farewell to Ms. Field

by Anna Komorowski

Ms. Moonyean Field, a rehabilitation counselor in the Special Education office, retired over the summer of 2012. She dealt with many of the severely disabled students here at CCHS.

Before Ms. Field's career started here at Chicopee Comp, she worked at a school for the deaf as an interpreter. Although she was originally hired here for interpreting, she was eventually given the position of rehabilitation counselor. Ms. Field is a huge advocate for people with disabilities, and was a perfect fit for Chicopee Comp.



In addition to Ms. Field's work with the disabled, she has always been completely dedicated to her love for theatre. Many of us will remember Ms. Field for her timeless dedication to the Drama Club. She even acted in the 2009 musical Bye Bye Birdie, playing Mr. Mashia's wife! She also founded the One Act Play Festival at Comp, and directed the winning play when it returned in 2011.

Ms. Field currently resides in Holyoke, and spends most of her time working with The Opera House Players at the Broad Brook Opera House in Connecticut, where she holds the position of Vice President of Procedures.

The Comp Chronicle staff would like to thank Ms. Field for her dedication to students at Chicopee Comprehensive High School.

Foreign Language Awards Presented

by Daniel Blais

Chicopee Comp's Foreign Language Department held their annual Foreign Language Awards on April 10, 2013. The ceremony was hosted by the Foreign Language Department Director, Ms. Lori Parzych. Chicopee Saving Bank, PeoplesBank, and the Polish National Credit Union contributed funds to make the rewards possible.

Emily Laino

Every year, two seniors who have taken four years of Spanish, French, or Chinese are selected to receive a scholarship dedicated to the belated German teacher, Ann Blodgett. This year, Emily Laino and William Cantin were awarded these funds based on their hard work, outstanding grades and superior effort in class.

William Cantin

Of the 545 students attending, not all were eligible to receive a scholarship. However, some were awarded with a certificate and an iTunes gift card. Seniors who had taken four years of foreign language and qualified for an award were given a Staples gift card. In total, 76 students received gift cards.

The Comp Chronicle staff would like to congratulate all students who qualified for awards, as well as Emily and William for their dedication to academic achievement.

Internships Inspire, Motivate Students

by Amanda Young

Internships are a great on-the-job learning opportunity available to seniors. Students interested in becoming a teacher may intern at a school. They have also worked in hospitals, medical offices, and even bakeries.

Ms. Blanchard

It is important for the student to be placed in an area where they have a high degree of interest. Mrs. LaFleur, who works in the Career Cruising lab, stated, "It is a good learning process for the students as they are exposed to the real work world."

As an intern myself I believe that the program was a great opportunity for me as well as for my mentor. As an aspiring baker, I found it really helpful to learn about working in a real bakery. My mentor, Evelyn Vargas, owner of Evelyn's Bakery, stated, "It was definitely an overall good experience. I feel like I taught a lot to where Amanda would have a lot of experience, and it was an overall good experience for me as well."

Even though mentors play a huge part in the internship experience, Mrs. Blanchard, the Chicopee Community Workforce Director, plays a huge role as well. She sets everything up for the interns. Ms. Blanchard remarked, "We had a great year and are looking forward to the internship breakfast as well as next year's interns because there are a lot of great candidates for 2014."

All in all an internship is great way to help you in your senior year as well as provide an experience can inspire you for the rest of your life.

Battle of the Bands a Rocking Good Time

by Brandon Underwood

This year's Battle of the Bands at Comp exceeded everyone's expectations. The participating bands— Speechless, Across the Atmosphere, Ellipsis, and the Generation— were unheard of until the announcement of the show's official lineup.

In spite of the some discouraging moments for the musicians, all songs were played to the maximum potential and the crowd was blown away by the high voltage and through the roof charisma. Each group possessed their very own unique style and sound. They played hard and battled it out until there were blisters on their fingers and an absolute feeling of accomplishment in their hearts. The band Speechless even used a drum solo tactic, beautifully performed by the phenomenal Tyler McCreary. The gruesome battle endured roughly two hours and by the end, Across the Atmosphere was declared the victor. It was a tough decision made by the judges, basing their marks on crowd response, overall energy, total sound of the entire band, and showmanship.

This year's Battle surely made up for last year, when the event was cancelled because not enough bands chose to participate. Mr. Clark, the director of the show, seemed to be very satisfied with the performance displayed by this year's groups and is one step closer to his goal of 20 years of Battle of the Bands.

Music Department Triumphs

by Heather Hayner

This year's Band and Chorus Spring concert was an overwhelming success. During the last half of the year, the chorus tackled the famed musical work Carmina Burana. Composed by Carl Orff, Carmina Burana is actually written for a chorus of 100 to 200 or more people, but this fact did not deter conductor Ms. Borowiec from taking on the challenge.

Chicopee Comp's chorus has grown exponentially in the past few years, not just in numbers, but in musical ability. It was because of this fact that the chorus was not only able to execute Carmina Burana, but to put on one of the best shows that it has ever performed. The singers at the concert were accompanied by pianist Ludmila Krasin, percussionists Edward Brewer and Patricia Pikul, and tympanist and tubist, Chicopee Comp's very band director, Mr. Blanksteen.

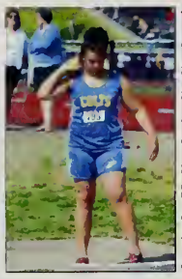
Freshman Jo'El Raches livens up the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Halyake.

Comp's band, conducted by Mr. Blanksteen, performed in numerous events and competitions throughout the entire state this year. At the Spring Concert, the wind ensemble played pieces by Aaron Copland and Gustav Holst, closing their performance with "Flight of the Thunderbird," a very lively and challenging piece composed by Richard L. Sauchedo.

Other showings by the Comp band include parades at the Big E, the Holyoke St. Patrick's Day parade, and the Memorial Day parade, during which Riley Martin and Griffon Bledsoe played "Taps" on the trumpet to show respect for all of our nation's fallen soldiers. In addition, the band placed in multiple competitions, receiving an impressive silver medal in the Massachusetts Instrumental and Choral Conductors Association (MICCA) Concert Festival in April.

Girls Track Runs Toward Their Goals

by Kylee Klinkowski



Seniar captain Victoria Brawn prepares ta thraw a Western Mass-qualifying thraw.

With the opening of the spring 2013 sports season at Chicopee Comprehensive High School, the girls track team set new goals for the upcoming season. Led by coaches Rich Laurin, Graham Raymond, and Jodi Boyle, the team prepared for a season of hard work and dedication.

The returning students of the team welcomed many new members as they began their journey of setting and reaching new personal and season bests. Captains Olivia Payne, Megan Faivre, Victoria Brown, and Kylee Klinkowski encouraged their teammates to reach their highest potential.

The team faced off in their division with four home meets against Cathedral, West Side , Chicopee High and Westfield; and two away meets against Holyoke and Central. The team conquered Cathedral 113 to 32, West Side 102 to 42, and Holyoke 93 to 51. Although the team was able to pull through for three great wins, they came up short of defeating Chicopee High 88 to 57, Central 82 to 54, and Westfield 98.5 to 45.5.

Despite these losses, many girls were able to qualify for the Western Mass meet. These girls included Victoria Brown in shot, Kylee Klinkowski in the 400 meter dash, the 200 meter dash, and long jump, Hailey Chapdelaine in pole vault, Kiara Spells in the 100 meter dash, Jessika Ribeiro in the 400 meter hurdles, 100 meter hurdles, pole vault, and high jump, Tori McPherson in the 100 meter dash, and Stephanie Lopes in the 100 meter dash. The girls look forward to more hard work, dedication, and personal records in the years to come!

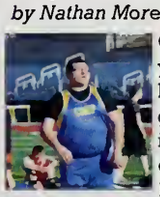
Boys Track Remains On Top

by Nathan Moreau



Brian Garcia laaks an befare his massive thraw.

Once again this year, Coach Lamothe put together an amazing team led by captains Alex Niemiec, Nathan Moreau, Tyler Vaccaro, Andre Remillard, Brian Garcia, Luis Vicente, Ray Pelter, and Devon Stearley. The team pushed to two league titles in a row , remaining undefeated in outdoor track for two years straight. The boys came out strong, led by Coach K, Coach Bouyea, and Coach Goff. Once again, the team took home the league title by going undefeated 7-0.

It all started at a cold meet in Holyoke where the boys started off strong in a win by a score. Then the boys took on Agawam and blew them out as well. The third meet of the season was an easy win for the boys over Cathedral. After that the boys moved on to Westfield, a very strong distance team, and Comp once again proved their might with a strong win. In the fifth meet the boys went against crosstown rivals in a track meet under the lights. Comp beat Chicopee High with amazing record breaking performances, including a record over 20 years old which was broken in the 4x100 meter relay. The boys went on the road against Ludlow, then Central, where two wins sealed off an undefeated season.

Ashleigh Clark steps up ta the plate far Chicapee Camp, keeping her eye an the ball.

Carolyn Raberts crauches ta be prepared ta catch the ball at any mament.

One Team, One Goal: Comp Softball

by Heather Hayner

Chicopee Comp's Division I 2013 varsity softball team, headed by Coach Kelly Walsh, had a rocky season this year. Though they did not having a winning record, many of the games were very close.

Against South Hadley, Comp lost by only two points, with a final score of 9-7 in favor of South Hadley. However, the team did have multiple games from which they emerged the champions, defeating Ludlow 6-2 and East Longmeadow 6-3.

The team's batting statistics were led by Jillian Devlin with nineteen hits, followed closely by Ashleigh Clark and Corinne LaRochelle, who both had fifteen hits. Moreover, three home runs were made by Chicopee Comp's softball team this past season, two by Ashleigh Clark and one by Brie Boisselle, both juniors.

Regarding the team as a whole, senior and team captain Sarah Laurin stated, "I think from the beginning of the year we improved a lot to where we were at the end of the season. Our team was like a family, and I think that showed in the way we came together and the way we support each other. Even though we didn't have the greatest record, we still had a really good season, and it was a lot of fun."

As Sarah said, a team's record is not what is most important, and numbers on a score board are not all that matters. The team improved and came together as a family. They were one team, with one goal. They were Comp softball.

Boys Lacrosse First Year a Success

by Brian Garcia

Brandon Pavoni prepares to launch the ball down the field.

Lacrosse is a brand new sport to Chicopee Comp this year; actually it is a new sport to Chicopee Public Schools in general. Both Chicopee Comp and Chicopee High started lacrosse teams this year. Hopefully, the sport will foster another long rivalry between the two schools.

In spite of its lack of experience as a team, Chicopee Comp lacrosse has done a great job playing at a competitive level. For example, sophomore Nick Hebert played an astonishing game this year, scoring six goals! This just goes to show that anybody can be good at something if they practice hard and set their mind to it.

The Comp lacrosse team has had a fairly good season, considering lacrosse is a new sport to most of the athletes on the team. The team had many star athletes, such as top goal scorers Brandon Pavoni and Brady Seymour. The team's captains were seniors John Wilke and Ryan House.

The Comp Chronicle staff wishes the Chicopee Comp lacrosse team the best of luck in their future seasons. Lacrosse has been a great addition to the sports family here at Chicopee Comp and hopefully will continue to prosper for many years to come.

Boys Tennis Victorious in West Springfield

by Julio Rivera

Jason Hamelin keeps his eye on the ball.

The Chicopee Comp Tennis team, led by seniors Max Gerhardson and Tyler Schofield, had a 2013 record of 6-8 and conference record of 2-6.

Comp's first win of the season was April 16 vs. West Springfield. Andrew Sulewski won his match by scoring to 4 in the first set and 6 - 3 in the second set. Jason Hamelin won his first set 6 - 1 and second set 6 - 3. Jaimin Patel won his first set, but his opponent came back and won the last two sets. The Doubles team of Max Gerhardson and Tyler Schofield was victorious, but the team of Daniel Callahan and Randy Simmonette fell to their Westside opponents.

All in all, the future is bright for Comp Men's Tennis.

Girls Tennis: Hard Work Pays Off

by Andrew Sulewski

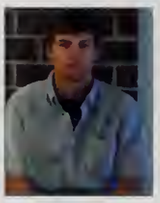
Team Captain Brianna Gardiner shows amazing muscle control.

The girls tennis team has been focused on improving their skills to represent Chicopee Comp well against competing schools. It takes being physically fit and mentally ready to overcome the competitors, and to ensure victory for the team. This means running many laps, and doing many exercises to increase stamina level. Through dedication, they were able to push through the vigorous exercises created by their coach to prepare them for the challenge ahead. Many hours were spent at the Comp tennis courts to do drills that would improve their skill in tennis.

Brianna Gardiner, a senior and team captain, won the coveted first singles spot, followed by Jane Stebbins, then Brooke Gardiner in third singles. Doubles teams saw Jessica Proulx and Chloe Gerhardson at first doubles; with Kristen Hubert and Morgan Hiersche taking the second doubles spot. Every game was close, and their hard work would pay off many times with every position earning points, and wins to try and help their entire team to victory.

Fresh Season for Colts Baseball

by Patricia Ann Marie Reitz



Senior baseball captain Harley Kagan

Mr. Franczek is this year's new varsity coach. He loves baseball, and Comp baseball is very special to him and his family. His father played here from 1972-74, Mr. Franczek played from 1999-2001, and his brother played from 2001-04. Mr. Franczek wanted to continue the great program coach Dulchinos started 50 years ago.

This year Mr. Franczek is going to miss the way this group played with great passion and love for the game. He hopes it lays the groundwork for future years. He appreciated the many contributions of his senior players. Tom E. Duffy started in the left field and brought great defense, Bret Casey started at 3rd base and had a big presence in the middle of the order. Harley Kagan played center field and was also a great defender.

Captain Harley Kagan plans to try out for his college team. He joined the team because he had grown up on baseball. He said that he works very hard on and off the field and he always tries to give 100%.

Another Great Year for Boys Volleyball

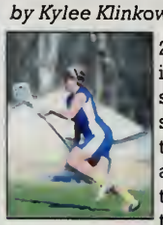
by Jordan Tenney

The Chicopee Comp boys volleyball team had had an amazing 2013 season. Their hard work and dedication paid off; they won seven games against Central, Belchertown, East Longmeadow, Minnechaug, Putnam, West Side, and Ludlow. They were led by Coach Dobson, Coach Toczek, Coach Bono and team captains Kyle Soja, Leo Gomez, and Adrian Sanmiguel.

Their season started in March as tryouts began. Coach Dobson chose a select amount of boys for varsity and junior varsity. Every day after school, the team dedicated two to three hours to enhance their skills in bumping, setting, and spiking.

Girls Lacrosse Takes on First Ever Season

by Kylee Klinkowski



Allie Roy advances up the field.

2013 marked an important milestone in CCHS sports: the addition of both boys and girls lacrosse teams. Many first-time players excitedly picked up their sticks to participate in the first season as an official team. Combining both the girls from Chicopee Comp and Chicopee High and led by Coach Andrew Stevens, the team underwent many challenges as they learned the ropes of the game. Although it was their first season, they worked hard to make progress.

The girls finished with two wins (Cathedral and Wahconah) and nine losses (Belchertown, Holyoke Catholic, Cathedral, Pittsfield, Monson and Lee), but they are definitely prepared to get more wins in the future.

The team, led by captain Steffanie Accorsi and top scorers Allie Roy, Kaylee Krajewski, and Savana Hennessey, recalls a memorable win against Wahconah which showed the progress the team made. With just fourteen seconds left and a 9-9 score, Hennessey scored a memorable goal to win the game 10-9. This win helped the team end on a high note, and created optimism for the next season. Allie Roy, one of the team's leading players, sums up the season by saying, "We improved a lot and we didn't think we'd be as good as we were."

Seniors Adrian Sanmiguel and Kyle Soja dish out some pain to their opponents.

I can't believe the last four years of high school is finally over. The seniors when we were in middle school were right when they said it goes by fast. To (almost) all the teachers I've had, thanks for dealing with me. To all the friends I made, thanks for the best memories of my life. Thank you to all who were there for me, I couldn't have made it here without you. To both the Class of 2013 and my underclassmen friends, good luck in the future. Maybe you'll see me at the class reunion....but probably not!

Olivia Korell

To all my teachers: both those who shone like brilliant stars and others like brass doorknobs, I thank you. To my underclassmen: your time will come soon too, but don't be afraid to seek the wisdom of your teachers and administrators. I leave the role of student photographer to Beth Atkinson who I know to be exceedingly capable. Brianna LaFlash and Kaitlin Abbott will have to pick up the slack when I leave to ensure that Mr. Bellefeuille is routinely annoyed. Oh high school, you've been quite interesting and it will be a bittersweet ending. Deuces! It's been real.

Jennica Ayala

Thank you to each and every person I've met throughout my four years. You've made me who I am. Especially, Mrs. Wolf, Mr. Cantin, Mrs. Sulikowski, Ms. Freisberg, Coach Laurin, Lauren P, and Ms. Lucek. Without you, I wouldn't have been able to graduate. To the girls track team, I love you and I'll miss you more than I can say.

Michael Dziewlt

I would like to take the time to thank all of my teachers that I have had throughout my four years of Chicopee Comp for caring so much about my needs and being such positive influences to me. I would like to wish the boys swimming and track teams the best of luck for next year and many years to come.

Christian Berthold

So here's the thing: I'm not good at this. First, thanks to my teachers, especially Mrs. Sulikowski for being the amazing person that she is: I'll never forget you. To Tony Champagne, I leave the legendary CVS Mountain Dew journey, keeping the freshman in line, making sure they go through initiation, and not forgetting the spoons. I leave Brianna LaFlash with my broken drum sticks and the emptiness of no more daily hugs. To Kaitlin Abbott, thanks for making Compaccinos great. I may physically be leaving Comp, but this place will leave my soul the same day music does: never.

Megan Faivre

These past four years have been a rollercoaster but I wouldn't have been able to get through it without my track family. Little Mac, the first of my little sisters, I'm giving you my 800m to run as cute as you possibly can. Jessikha, my high jump sister, I'm counting on you to make Western Mass next year. Lastly, Rache, the second of my little sisters, I give you my 400m hurdle powers that never really existed. Keep fishin' and remember butt up and TURN AT THE SKIN!

Jocelyn Pickard

Kayleen Duffy: my darling baby cousin you have red hair so I leave you the ability to beat up anyone who makes fun of your red hair! I also leave you "you've been hazed"
Orrie Baray Forget: I leave you the xc team and all of our inside jokes, our LSD's, and you are now in charge of sleepovers with me you and danon ball!
Danielle Beaudreault: I leave you my high school awesome-ness and I also leave you "thirsty "
Nikki Dunn: Please do your work this year and graduate! BE NICE TO TEACHERS & NO TEXTING.

Jessica Proulx

I would just like to thank the best tennis coach in the world, Mr. Buckley. Not only was he the girls tennis coach for three years, but he truly cared about each and every one of us. He always had faith in us and never gave up. Get back in the other thirty baseball Buckanator!

Sebastian Vaca Caicedo

To all of you underclassmen, I would like to thank all of you for staying out of my way and letting me do my thing. I'd like to leave my Ghetto Attitude to my boy Sitruc Riley. I want to leave my precious class of 03' shirt to Pete, my favorite little freshman! (Represent with pride my friend!) And last but not least, I want to leave my fabulous "What if" crazy stories to Josh Fournier and Adam Polverini, my two favorite Juniors! Thanks for all the love Comp, Peace out.

James Tanhauser

For my senior will, I am leaving my pre-game soccer ritual to Nik Moisan, so he can carry it out during the season next fall. I am leaving all of my French knowledge (or lack thereof) to Tyler Deauseault. I will leave my sense of humor and such to Mr. Jendrysik. Finally, I am leaving all of my best wishes to Mr. Dunphy and the soccer team, Coach Lamothe and the track and field team. Practices and games on the turf provide me with memories I will never forget.

Mattie Rousseau

Dominique Rousseau: I leave you as being the last Rousseau in Chicopee Comp. Best of luck next year in your senior year.
Future Memini Staff Members: As a Co Editor-in-Chief I leave you with the inspiration and determination to continue creating the Memini Yearbook.
Michael Piedra, William Nardi, and Myranda Brault: Best of luck to you in your junior and senior years of high school. Also, continue to perform in the productions in drama club; all of you are very talented. Good luck in your future careers and lives.

Va'aifetu Ripley

These four years would've been nothing without the patience of my teachers who put up with my slack and goofiness. Thank you all so much! To my prodigy, Alyssa Stefanelli, I leave you my #10 jersey and the beautiful volleyball court that I know you'll take care of. Be a leader, play hard and always stay humble. To my child, Phu Do, it's okay to pepper with someone else now :(To my little brother, Josiah Douglas, I'll miss seeing your bright smile everyday, please don't ever change. I leave you my eternal big sister protection. May the force be with you.

Victoria Brown

Well, let me see, where do I start? 4 Pep-rally's, 4 Spirit Weeks, 4 Flights of dreadful stairs, 4 Track and Field seasons, 4 years of work, stress, fun, laughter, tears, and gratitude. 4 years to create ourselves, mold our lives, with teachers and life-long friends. To those teachers and friends, thank you, I will always cherish you along my journey, it all paid off. The 5:30 alarm clock stabs, and what seemed to be the longest Monday's of MY LIFE. But, here I am. My farewell, my sayonara, we made it. A crazy ride 2013? I think so.

Patrick Mitchell

To Lizzy, I leave absolutely no blame. You are a smarty, kind, talented, and beautiful person who does not deserve to be bagged down by a certain individual who does not understand the meaning of friendship. I'll never forget you and all the good memories we have together. Good luck with everything and remember: five months is an easy record to break.

Laila Shaikh

I would like to say a big thank you to all my teachers and everything they have taught me. I would also like to say thank you to the teachers that were always there for me and never left my side. Thank you Mrs. Snow-Redington, Mrs. Bineau, Ms. Ruell, and Mrs. Roberts.

Maxwell Gerhardson

I, Maxwell R. Gerhardson, of 116 Mandalay Rd, Chicopee, Massachusetts, declare this as my Last Will and Testament. I leave everything to Justin Macyntire, the coolest dude on the block. Keep it real homie. I also leave you with $100, do what you will with it [(100)] To Ethan I leave a cup of apple sauce to enjoy. That is it

Alyssa Szady

First off I want to thank my class for such an amazing high school experience. To Ms. Bineau thank you for all the crazy stories and making your class the only class worth going to. To Mr. Grezlak thank you for always letting me escape. To my coaches and team mates, thank you for encouraging me. To my track and xc girls thanks for all the crazy and fun times we all shared at practices and even the bus rides to our meets. To my shottay's I'm going to miss our long talks, and us jamming out in the weight room.

Nomari Lopez

I leave my good judgment, success, and all the luck that I have had throughout high school to Cecile Vazquez. I know you are smart, a great best friend with great intentions, and are meant to become a very successful and well respected professional some day. I know things, and people now sometimes suck, but in the end you will win the battle because you are you and you are great. Always remember to do what is best for you because your happiness is what matters. Lastly I love you so much and enjoy your senior year baby girl!!

Alyssa Balboni

To my little brother, Tyler Balboni; I leave you great advice to never slack off and try your hardest at everything you do. Don't let anyone make you feel less than who you are. These next four years are going to fly by faster than you think. Stay focused, be involved, and most importantly have fun! To the new interns in the school store, I leave Manny the Mannequin. Treat him well, and if you find his hand please return it to him.

Lizzy Craig

To my little bro, Jacob Ruczinski: I leave you the motivation to pass ALL YOUR CLASSES and the ability to get involved with everything you possibly can. These are the best years of your life, MAKE IT COUNT! ~Go Jacob~ To the next interns at the school store: I leave you Colts Corner and Manny the Manikin, enjoy.
